Secret.2 Their Stay-over

An illustration and message from my honourable sister

Futari no Himitsu.
Congratulations on the 1st Volume.
I generally like to live without using a pencil or an eraser and I only make an exception when I am helping with this manga.
But from now on I am going to leave the erasing to TOM!
Let's keep working hard! star
Saori

*T/N: Kiki uses ore' here which is a masculine way of saying I and Teppei uses atashi' which is the feminine way of saying I

Since my last work, I haven't really had any free time so my conversation topics are . only my memories of going to Dreamland * with TOM . (*arrow: the world famous mouse's)
At the time of writing, I want to go to a summer festival! I'm dying to go.
More than fireworks or night-stalls, I want to wear Yukata*! I am totally committed to this.
TOM was a Japanese clothing expert so if I ask her, she'll make one for me. So this year I am thinking about heading out into the town in a brand new Yukata. That's what I'm thinking about at the moment! Next I think I will reply to the questions I have received by post.
*T/N: Yukata is a light summer kimono

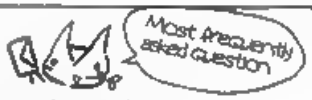
Their Secret

Secret 3 Their Promise

Q1. Why did you want to become a Manga writer? What was your motivation?
A. I don't want to answer this in a 'normal' kind of way. I studied, I went to college, I went job hunting, I got married – doesn't suit me at all! When I was in middle school I decided 'I'm going to make a living as a Mangaka' Even so, I didn't write any manga in Middle school! I dedicated my youth to my club activities (volley ball) By the way I'm 153cm tall. And I was the captain. Heh heh heh



Q2. How old are you?
A. Well, I suppose I'm the generation between "Master Osamu and Miss Yuuko" and "Master Kentaro and Miss Ayumi" I like Do-re-mi-fa Donuts more than Niko-pun*-!

*T/N. the donuts are more recent (available until 2000) than Niko-pun (a children's program that showed until 1992) – a hint on the Mangaka's age?

HA-H...
WHAT IS YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH KIKI?!

It couldn't be helped so they attached a blue thread to one and a red thread to the other
A long time ago there weren't enough yellow ribbons for just two of the bells
IT'S A STORY I HEARD FROM THE FRIEND OF A FRIEND..
IT'S HERE! RISA STORY TIME
And they were the bells that had the blue and red thread attached
On that day, the bells were randomly handed out
At the school bonfire* a girl and boy who didn't have anyone else, delivered their bell to each other
THEY MADE THE MOST OF THIS COINCIDENCE AND BECAME A COUPLE EVEN NOW, SOMEWHERE...
*T/N: it is tradition to hold a bonfire at the end of school festivals in Japan there is often dancing and a lot of love confessions!
I'd like Blue
WHAT, SO IT'S FINE IF IT ISN'T YELLOW?
WELL, I DON'T KNOW IF IT'S TRUE OR NOT...

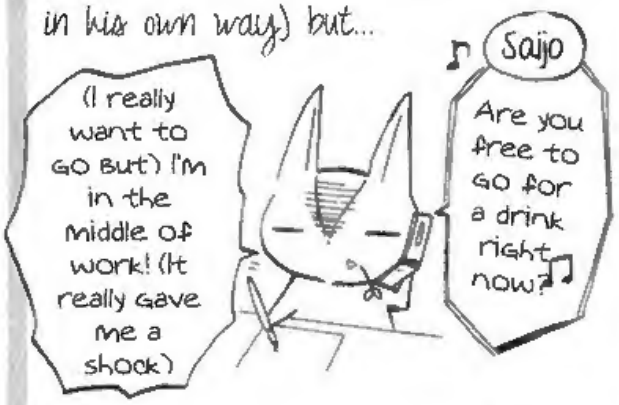
For this story I mostly borrowed names from my classmates... so when I got a call from the real "Saijo" (guy), I thought it would be "Arg, people think it's me!! Now I'm Mad!!" (arrow said in his own way) but...



Surprisingly, everyone was like "please use my name" so I am really thankful. It's all a bit disorganised but I'll see you in the next volume ～ ☆
